New attractions are constantly being prepared for its readers and none will dispute the assertion that its enterprise and energy have already won for it a foremost place in the ranks of co newspapers of this section have been driven into xurtion never before made and while the papers here are now a pride to every citizen it ought not to be forgotton that their marked im-provement has been made within the year last past-or in other words since the esta

EIGHT

SPECIAL REASONS

Which cannot fail to commend the Journal to every class of the reading public.
First.-Because it is the largest paper ever published in this county, and because it fur-nishes each week nearly three columns more reading than all the other papers combined. Second.—Because it has a larger list of contributors than any other paper in Northern Ohio, Third .- Because it is in every sense of the word, "a live paper," "for live people."

Fourth.—Because it is, in the broadest sense, fair and independent upon all subjects, wheth-

Fifth .- Because its articles are all to the point and its columns are not filled with long and prosy essays devoid of all interest.

Sixth.—Because it gathers the news from all quarters of the world, by telegraph and through its own special correspondents and re-porters, and condenses it into such brief shape as to present a reliable mirror of all that is going on in this and other coun Seventh.-Because its Market Reports of Stock, Grain, Groceries, and Agricultural products, of home and foreign markets are always Eighth .- Because it is a paper for the Home Circle-always having something for the young folks, as well as the old folks; something for the humorous as well as the thoughtful; something for the gentlemen as well as the ladies; in fact, something for all tasses.
